THE WEATHER OF MARKETS

With the weather playing yoyo and snowy uncertainties, this winter is taking many Quebecers by surprise. A little like the markets. In both cases, greyness and uncertainty are on the menu.

But this situation can also create new opportunities for investors, particularly those thinking long-term. As trusted advisors, we closely monitor the financial news and provide regular updates throughout the year.

In the meantime, here are some articles to help you combine present pleasures and future serenity.

DON'T LET THE LOW LOONIE CLIP YOUR WINGS: HERE ARE THE TOP DESTINATIONS FOR CANADIAN TRAVELLERS

You always dreamt of attending the Olympics? Now is your chance and the Canadian dollar might help the fantasy along.

"It's there for the taking. The Brazilian real is declining," says Michael Duchesne, publisher for Travelzoo Canada, which has cited Rio de Janeiro as one of its top five destinations for Canadians in 2016.

The Olympic Games can often be cost prohibitive, but the supply of hotels rooms has ramped up in Rio and now hoteliers are getting desperate to rent them out, making rates very competitive, he says.
